New York, NY, Where in the World is Jefferson Sancarlos?, a favorite underground card game of the millennial generation is now available for the first time to the general public. Sababa Toys, is offering the game through selected retailers for this holiday season. The mysterious game has been hard to locate until now. Calls to former Sababa president, Stone Newman went unanswered. No one is talking- Everyone is looking.

The game, itself, has a simple goal; catch the elusive Jefferson Sancarlos's assistants, the B.I.L.E. Henchmen. Players role play as ACNE detectives and work together to find the road to that thief of thieves Sancarlos.

The game, a parody, is a groundbreaker as it is the first game in the new adult, light strategy, location geography game category. Sababa announced that it has plans in 2018 and 2019 to release several more entries into this genre.
